Child Protection Policy

This policy applies to all those involved in Rathgar Tennis Club including, but not limited to, coaches, administrators, officials, volunteer drivers, members, parents and young people.

Child Protection Statement

Rathgar Tennis Club is fully committed to safeguarding the well-being of its members. Every individual in the Club should at all times show respect and understanding for their rights, safety and welfare, and conduct themselves in a way that reflects the principles of the Club and the guidelines contained in the Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Children's Sport.

Rathgar Tennis Club supports the view that all children's sport should be conducted in an atmosphere of fair play. In this context the Club undertakes to adopt the definition of fair play as set out in the European Sports Charter and Code of Ethics, Council of Europe \(1993\).

"Fair play is much more than playing within the rules. It incorporates the concepts of friendship, respect for others and always playing within the right spirit. Fair play is defined as a way of thinking, not just a way of behaving. It incorporates issues concerned with the elimination of cheating, gamesmanship, doping, violence (both physical and verbal), exploitation, unequal opportunities, excessive commercialism and corruption."

To promote the best practice in children's sport, the Club complies with the guidelines as set out in Section 2.7 of the Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Children's Sport as follows:

- The Club has adopted and implemented the Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Children's Sport as an integral part of its policy on children in the Club.
- The Club is operated under its Constitution. This document has been approved and adopted by club members at various Annual and Extraordinary General Meetings of the members of the Club. Any changes to the Constitution must be approved by the members of the Club at a General Meeting of the members.
- The Club permits all junior (i.e. under 18) members over 16 years of age to vote, where possible, in the running of the Junior Section of the Club. One parent/guardian has one vote for all of their children under 16 years of age, where relevant.
- The General Executive of the Club is elected by the Club members at each Annual General Meeting in accordance with the procedures set out in the Constitution.
- The Club has adopted and consistently applies a safe and clearly defined method of recruiting and selecting Sports Leaders.

- The role of the committee members, all sports leaders and parents/ guardians have been clearly defined.
- The Club appoints one male and one female children's officer at the AGM as outlined in the Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Children's Sport. One of the Children's officers is an ex officio member of the Executive Committee.
- The Executive Committee appoints a member of the Club to act as Designated Person to liaise with the Statutory Authorities in relation to the reporting of allegations or suspicions of child abuse. Any such reports are made in accordance with the procedures outlined in the Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Children's Sport.
- In order to ensure best practice throughout the Club the Executive Committee disseminates its code of conduct, including the disciplinary, complaints and appeals procedures in operation within the Club to all its members. The Club's code of conduct is posted prominently around the Club premises.
- Procedures have been put in place for dealing with a concern or complaint made to the Statutory Authorities against a Committee Member or Sports Leader. A Sports Leader who is the subject of an allegation which has been reported to the Statutory Authorities, shall stand aside while the matter is being examined. He/she will be invited to resume full duties immediately that he/she has been vindicated.
- Where appropriate, Sports Leaders are required to report to the Executive Committee on a regular basis.
- The Club encourages regular turnover of committee membership while ensuring continuity and experience.
- Effective procedures for responding to and recording accidents/ incidents have been put in place.
- The Club monitors both the use of the facilities and participation in club activities to ensure that any unusual activity (high rate of drop-out, transfers, etc.) is identified, checked out and reported by the Designated Person to the Executive Committee.
- All Club members are given notice of all General Meetings of the Club in accordance with the procedures in that regard as set out in the Constitution.

The minutes of all Executive and Committee meetings are recorded, adopted as correct and safely filed. Rathgar Tennis Club is committed to ensuring that Sports Leaders are competent to provide safe and rewarding experiences for those in their care and that Sport Leaders are provided with the appropriate training for their activity. Appropriate training and education opportunities will also be made available to club officials, non-coaching staff and parents/guardians as appropriate. Rathgar Tennis Club is committed to ensuring that adequate adult supervision of all club activities involving children is provided.

Equality Statement

All children should be valued and treated in an equitable and fair manner regardless of ability, age, sex, religion, social and ethnic background or political persuasion. Children, irrespective of ability or disability should be involved in sports activities in an integrated and inclusive way, whenever possible, thus allowing them to participate to their full potential alongside other children (Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Children's Sport 2000).

Rathgar Tennis Club recognises the additional vulnerability of some children and the extra difficulties they may face when seeking help, i.e.

- Dependency due to disability may make some children feel powerless;
- On occasions possible limited ability to communicate their feelings; and
- A negative self-image can make children vulnerable to manipulation by others.

To address this vulnerability coaches are encouraged to seek guidance on working with children with a disability from external agencies, parents / guardians, and the children themselves.

Confidentiality Statement

Rathgar Tennis Club recognises that the legal principle that the welfare of the child is paramount means that consideration of confidentiality should not be allowed to override the right of children to be protected from harm. Everyone in our organisation, including children, must be aware that they can never promise to keep secrets. However, information of a confidential nature will only be communicated on a 'need to know' basis.

Rathgar Tennis Club is committed to continual monitoring and development of this Child Protection Policy in the light of changing circumstances.

All Coaches and Sports Leaders are required to read and sign the appropriate Code of Conduct contained in the Appendices to this policy. The original signed document will be held by the Club.

Appendix 1 - Club Children's Officers

Introduction

The Club's Children's Officers are responsible for leading the implementation of Child Protection Policies and Procedures. In this task they will have the full support of the Executive Committee of the Club.

The Club's Children's Officers will play a fundamental role in the creation of a child centered ethos that promotes the positive aspects of tennis.

This will be achieved by communicating to every adult in the Club that they have a duty of care to safeguard the welfare of children and young people in order to protect them from inappropriate behaviour and to promote a culture of safety and fun.

In order to do this the Club's Children's Officers, require certain knowledge and skills - some of which are a pre-requisite for the role and others that will be obtained through training and experience.

Appendix 2: Guidelines for Sports Leaders, Coaches, Officials, Convenors etc. including Code of Conduct

Rathgar Tennis Club recognises the key role leaders (professionals, coaches, convenors, captains, selectors and team managers, etc.) play in the lives of children in the Club. Club coaches, sports leaders and officials will strive to create a positive environment for the children in their care. They have an overall responsibility to take the necessary steps to ensure that positive and healthy experiences are provided. All Leaders will have as their first priority the children's safety and enjoyment of tennis and will adhere to the guidelines and regulations set out in The Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Children's Sport and the Club's Child Protection Policy.

Leaders will respect the rights, dignity and worth of every child and will treat everyone equally, regardless of gender, age, disability, social class, race, religion, ability etc.

Leaders appointed by the Club to work with children will have the appropriate experience and/or hold the necessary qualifications. Leaders will be expected to go through appropriate recruitment and selection procedures (ref. Appendix 5), whether paid or unpaid. Vetting procedures must be followed to comply with legislation. For those in the Republic of Ireland Garda Vetting should be successfully completed for all those with on-going contact with young people.

There will be a 'sign-up' procedure, whereby the appointed/reappointed leaders agree to abide by The Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Children's Sport and sign up to the Code of Conduct for Sports Leaders. Coaches and Sports Leaders should know and understand the Club's Child Protection Policies and Procedures and undertake to abide by them.

Once appointed the Leader should act as a role model and promote the positive aspects of tennis and maintain the highest standards of personal conduct. Leaders should develop an appropriate relationship with young people, based on mutual trust and respect. Their behaviour to players, other officials and opponents will have an effect on the players in their care. They should report any concerns they have to the Designated Person in the Club.

Being a Role Model

- You will be required to display high standards of language, manner, punctuality, preparation, and presentation.
- Ensure that players in your care respect the rules of the game. Insist on fair play and ensure players are aware you will not tolerate cheating or bullying behaviour.
- Encourage the development of respect for opponents, officials, selectors, and other leaders and avoid criticism of fellow professionals and coaches. Do not criticise other leaders.

- The use of illegal drugs, alcohol and tobacco must be actively discouraged as they are incompatible with a healthy approach to sporting activity. Leaders should avoid the use of alcohol and illegal substances before coaching, during events, while supervising trips with young players and providing a duty to care.

Protection for Leaders

- Leaders are responsible for setting and monitoring the boundaries between a working relationship and friendship with players. It is advisable for leaders not to involve young players in their personal life i.e. visits to leaders' homes or overnight stays.
- Avoid working alone and ensure there is adequate supervision for all activities.
- Where possible work in an open environment and ensure that physical contact is appropriate and has the permission or understanding of the child.
- Care must be taken not to expose a child intentionally or unintentionally to embarrassment or disparagement by use of sarcastic or flippant remarks.
- Physical punishment or physical force must never be used. Never punish a mistake by physical means or exclusion.
- A roster for Students On Duty in the Summer Programme should be in the office with the names of those on duty each day. – All Students On Duty should be made aware of the necessary safety regulations to be followed. They also should have a point of contact in case of any issues arising.

A Positive Environment

- Be generous with praise and never ridicule or shout at players for making mistakes or for losing a match. All young players are entitled to respect.
- Be careful to avoid the "star system". Each child deserves equal time and attention.
- Remember that young players play for fun and enjoyment and that skill development and personal satisfaction have priority over highly structured competition. Never make winning the only objective.
- Set realistic goals for the participants and do not push young players. Create a safe and enjoyable environment.
- When approached to take on a new player, ensure that any previous coach- participant relationship has been ended in a professional manner.

- It is advisable to get agreement from a parent/guardian when young players are invited into adult groups/squads. Boundaries of behaviour in adult groups are normally different from the boundaries that apply to junior groups/squads.
- Leaders who become aware of a conflict between their obligation to their players and their obligation to the Club must make explicit to all parties concerned the nature of the conflict and the loyalties and responsibilities involved.
- Leaders should communicate and co-operate with medical and ancillary practitioners in the diagnosis, treatment, and management of their players' medical or related problems. Avoid giving advice of a personal or medical nature if you are not qualified to do so. Any information of a personal or medical nature must be kept strictly confidential unless the welfare of the child requires the passing on of this information.
- The nature of the relationship between a leader and a participant can often mean that a leader will learn confidential information about a player or player's family. This information must be regarded as confidential and, except where abuse is suspected, must not be divulged to a third party without the express permission of the player/family.

Code of Conduct is to be signed by all club Coaches, Sports Leaders and Officials.

In addition, all club Coaches, Sports Leaders and Officials will be required to formally sign the Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Children's Sport Undertaking.

Appendix 3 - Code of Conduct for Children

- Never make false allegations about another player or adult.
- Never keep secrets about anyone who has caused me harm.

- Be a role model for your child and maintain the highest standards of conduct when interacting with young people, other parents, officials and organisers.
- Always behave responsibly and do not seek to unfairly affect a player or the outcome of the game.
- Never intentionally expose any young participant to embarrassment or disparagement by the use of flippant or sarcastic remarks.
- Always recognise the value and importance of the officials and volunteers who provide sporting and recreational opportunities for your child. Do not publicly question the judgement or honesty of referees, umpires, coaches or organisers. Respect convenors, professionals, coaches, referees, umpires, organisers and other players. Parents are welcome to attend events and coaching sessions but should not interfere with the coach or organiser while working with the player.
- Encourage your child to play by the rules of tennis. Teach your child that honest endeavour is as important as winning and do all you can to encourage good sportsmanship.
- Set a good example by applauding good play on all sides. Encourage mutual respect for other junior members, teammates and opponents.
- Support all efforts to remove abusive behaviour and bullying behaviour in all its forms. Please refer to Bullying Policy, Appendix 15, within the Club's Child Protection Policy.

Parents' Code of Conduct

- I will respect the rules and procedures set down by Irish Sports Council Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Children's Sport.
- I will respect my child's teammates and leaders as well as players, parents and coaches from opposing teams. I will encourage my child to treat other participants, professionals, coaches, convenors, selectors and managers with respect.
- I will give encouragement and applaud only positive accomplishments whether from my child, his/her teammates, their opponents or the officials.

Child Protection Policy

- I will respect my child's leader(s) and support his/her efforts.
- I will respect the officials and their authority during sessions and events whether within the Club or outside.
- I will never demonstrate threatening or abusive behaviour or use foul language.

All parents of new junior members are asked to look at the Club website to familiarise themselves with the Club Codes of Conduct.

The undertaking to abide by and support the Club's Child Protection Policy is given by the parent/legal guardian on application or renewal of Club membership and is deemed to be agreement to abide by this Code of Conduct.

Appendix 5 - Club Recruitment Procedures

Section 1. The General Approach to Recruitment

Rathgar Tennis Club relies heavily on the time and commitment freely given by volunteers. Without this, the opportunities for children to participate in tennis would not exist. The Club, however, is also mindful of its commitment to "safeguarding the well-being of its members" as outlined in its Child Protection Policy Statement.

This Recruitment Policy document sets out how the need for and encouragement of volunteer participation in our programmes is balanced against the obligation to take all reasonable steps to ensure the well-being of our junior members. We trust that potential volunteers will appreciate the obligation on the Club to satisfy itself that all those volunteering fully understand the role which they are taking on and the responsibilities attaching to that role. In addition, it is reasonable that those with substantial access to children in our care provide the kind of information that is essential in assessing somebody's suitability for quite responsible positions.

We hope that potential volunteers will provide any requested information in the overall spirit of the Club's commitment to child protection. Similarly, staff employed by the Club will be expected to provide the necessary information and to give the required undertakings in regard to their dealings with club members.

Section 2. The Specific Recruitment Procedures

Rathgar Tennis Club will ensure good recruitment procedures by utilising some or all of the following.

- Clearly defining the duties and responsibilities associated with each position (both voluntary and paid) within the Club.
- Insisting that anybody volunteering for any voluntary position or applying for any paid position within the Club completes the form relevant to that position (see Forms Section).
- Obtaining proof of identity of each person applying.
- Where necessary obtaining the individual's signed permission to enable Tennis Ireland to request a check from the Irish Garda vetting service.
- In the case of those who will have substantial access to children.
- Assessing the individual's experience of working with children or young people and knowledge of child protection issues
- Assessing their commitment to promoting good practice.
- Assessing their ability to communicate with children. (i.e. be approachable). This assessment will be done in the way most appropriate to the particular position.

Child Protection Policy

- Two written references required for preferred candidates and references to be checked.
- Ensuring that any appointment, whether paid or voluntary, is approved by the Club's Executive Committee.
- A suitable induction process will be put in place, and a period of probation will be decided by the Recruitment Sub Committee.
- Requiring all volunteers to provide undertakings to abide by the Code of Conduct relevant to their particular position (see Undertakings / Codes of Conduct)

The review of the information provided will be carried out by the Recruitment Sub-Committee comprising the Club Officers plus a representative of the Junior Committee. In the case of the review and assessment of any of the members of the Recruitment Sub-committee they will absent themselves from the sub- committee for the duration of that particular review.

The duties and responsibilities associated with all posts within the Club are set out in Appendix 7 of this policy.

Volunteers and staff will be required to undertake to abide by the relevant Code of Conduct by signing the code. (Ref Appendix 2)

This policy deals with a number of matters which come under the general heading of Travel but include travel, supervision and behaviour on away matches or on club-organised extended trips away. It also sets out the Club's policy in regard to acting as a host club or being hosted.

Overnight & Away Trips

Trips away (including away matches) require a more stringent level of supervision beyond that set out in Appendix 10 (Adult Supervision of Children's Activities).

The level of supervision for overnight trips away will as a minimum be of the order of no more than 5-6 children per adult. There will be at least one adult of each gender with mixed groups. The supervision proposals (which will require to be approved by the Executive Committee) will include the proposed child to adult ratio and the names of the adults who will act as supervisors. All adults who travel on away trips will be carefully chosen, using the recruitment and selection procedures in Appendix 5. The Club will appoint one adult to be the Group Leader who will have overall responsibility for ensuring that all Child Protection policies and procedures are complied with.

The roles and responsibilities of adults participating in away trips will be clearly defined.

Written permission of parents/guardians allowing their child/children to take part will be obtained for all overnight away trips. This will include permission to travel and any medical/special needs of the child (including permission to treat the child)

Children will be required to sign a behaviour agreement prior to taking part in the trip.

A meeting with parents and participants will be held to communicate travel times, competition details (where applicable), other activities, gear requirements, special needs (medical or dietary), and any other necessary details, contact details, codes of conduct, etc.

Away Matches

The level of supervision for away matches will be 6 children per adult. There will be at least one adult of each gender with mixed groups. All adults who travel to away matches will be carefully chosen, using the Club's recruitment and selection procedures. One of the adults will be appointed as Team Manager. He/she will have overall responsibility for the conduct of all members of the team (including adult supervisors).

Written permission of parents/guardians allowing their child/children to take part should be obtained for all away matches. This will include permission to travel and any medical/special needs of the child (including permission to treat the child).

Children will be reminded of their obligation to abide by the Club's Code of Conduct for Children.

Transport

There is an extra responsibility on adults and leaders when they transport young people to club organised events.

Adults should

- Ensure there is adequate insurance on their car and that they follow the rules of the road, including the legal use of seat belts.

- Ensure they do not carry more than the permitted number of passengers.

- Avoid being alone with one passenger. Child passengers will travel only in the back seat.

A central drop off location will be agreed in advance including clearly stated times of pick- up and drop off. If something happens to cause a delay to the drop-off time the group leader/team manager will phone one of the parents to inform them. The parent phoned will be asked to inform all other parents at the drop-off point. Under no circumstances should a lone adult have a lone child passenger (other than one of their own children) in their car. Parents are advised to check with young people about the travel plans, listen to what the young people are saying and be sure they are happy with the transport arrangements.

Accommodation for Away Trips

The proposed accommodation will be checked out beforehand to ensure that separate and appropriate sleeping arrangements can be made in advance.

Adults should not share a room with a child. Where the presence of an adult is needed there should be more than one child in the room with the adult. If children are sharing a room, it should be with those of the same groupings, age and gender. Adults should knock before entering a room.

All group socialisation should take place in communal areas (i.e. no boys in girls' rooms and vice versa).

General Requirements

Young players should be under reasonable supervision at all times and should never leave the venue or go unsupervised without prior permission.

Alcoholic drink, smoking and other illegal substances / activities are forbidden to participants. Leaders should act as role models in this respect.

On away trips, coaches will be accountable to the Group Leader/Team Manager in all non performance-related matters.

In the event of an occurrence Accident and/or Incident Reports should be completed by the Group Leader/Team Manager.

Hosting

Being a host family or being hosted is an integral part of many sports and, if handled appropriately, can add to a child's enjoyment and experience at a competition or other event.

Our Club as Host

Special care will be taken in the selection of homes for hosting overnight stays. The Club will be guided by the general principles of child protection and by the specific procedures set out in the Club's Recruitment procedures outlined in Appendix 5 when making these selections.

The host family will be provided with as much information about the visiting child/children staying with them and details of the competition as deemed necessary. As a minimum they will be given the names and contact details of the children's parents and the contact details of the Club official responsible for the hosting arrangements.

In all cases more than one visiting child will be placed with each host family except in exceptional circumstances (and only then with the specific agreement of the parents of the visiting child). The sleeping arrangements should be agreed in advance with the Club. The policy set out above in relation to accommodation on away trips will also apply to hosting.

The parents/guardian of the visiting child will be provided with all necessary information about the host family including names and contact details of adults, agreed sleeping and transport arrangements and contact details of the Club official responsible for the hosting arrangements.

The procedures in regard to transport set out above will apply to any transport being provided to the visiting children by the host family.

Club Members Being Hosted

The Club will ensure that the host club/sporting body has carried out the selection of hosting families using similar procedures to those set out in the Club's own Recruitment Procedures outlined in Appendix 5.

The Club will ensure that the provision of information to both visiting and hosting families will be the same as set out above where the Club is the host.

The Club will ensure that in all cases more than one visiting child will be placed with each host family except in exceptional circumstances (and only then with the specific agreement of the parents of the visiting child). The sleeping arrangements will be agreed in advance with the host club. The Club will require the assurance of the host club that the policy set out above in relation to accommodation on away trips will be complied with.

Details of the official of the hosting club who is responsible for the hosting arrangements will be provided to the parents of all visiting children. Similarly the details of the official from our club who is responsible for the hosting arrangements will be provided.

The Club will require the assurance of the host club that the policy set out above in relation to transport being provided to the visiting children by the host family/club will be complied with.

Whether being hosts or being hosted the Club will expect families to:

- Agree in writing to abide by the Irish Sports Council's Code of Ethics & Good Practice for Children's Sport.
- Consent to appropriate checks and references.
- Attend host/guest family meetings before competitions or events.
- Provide a safe and supportive environment for the young people being hosted by them.

Whether being hosts or being hosted the Club will expect the visiting/hosting children to:

- Sign a Behaviour Agreement.
- Show respect to the host families or the guests.

All visiting children will be made fully aware of the contact details of an adult in both the host and visiting clubs to whom they may go with any problems they may be experiencing. The adult nominated should be one of the Club's Children's Officer.

Appendix 9 - Adult Supervision of Children's Activities

Rathgar Tennis Club is proud of the welcome and support given to its junior members of all ages. The Club encourages all members to make full use of its facilities as often as possible.

As part of its obligations in the protection of children, the Club sets out the details of adequate adult supervision of junior members provided by the Club.

Actions to support the supervision of children's activities

- The Club will ensure that all children's activities organised by the Club are adequately supervised. Good practice dictates that, where possible, more than one adult is present to supervise these activities. This will help to ensure the safety of the children as well as protect the adults.
- The Club will be guided by the recommendations contained in Chapter 4 of Children First: National Guidelines for the Protection and Welfare of Children 2017.
- The Club will ensure that coaches / supervisors are not left alone with any child participant. If an adult requires to talk separately to a child, this will be done in an open environment and in view of others.
- Children should arrive for club-organised activities at the appointed time and should let their coach / supervisor know when they have arrived at the Club. It is the responsibility of parents to ensure that children do this.
- When the activity has finished children should remain with their coach / supervisor until they are collected. Parents are requested to collect their children punctually.
- If late collections occur coaches / supervisors will remain in pairs until all participants have left. It is the responsibility of parents / guardians to make arrangements for the timely collection of young people in their charge. Consistent late collection may require alternative arrangements to be put in place.

- If a parent fails to collect a child from an activity, the coach / supervisor will attempt to contact the parent / guardian by phone. If there is no answer, the coach / supervisor will then contact the emergency number provided. Should they be unable to make contact with either the parent / guardian or the emergency contact, the coach and another adult will wait with the child until they are collected.
- If a child suffers an injury or accident the parent /guardian will be informed and an Accident Report Form will be completed.
- Attendance records and records of any incidents or accidents that occur will be kept by the Club.
- Should very young children require a toilet break during activities they will be accompanied to the Clubhouse by a coach / supervisor. Children will only be brought to the Clubhouse in pairs and not alone. Coaches / supervisors will not accompany the child into to the toilet cubicle but will wait for the child in the Club foyer so that they can return safely and promptly to the activity.
- Arrangements for supervision during home or away matches etc. are outlined in the Appendix 8 -Travel & Hosting Policy of this document.
- The Club welcomes and encourages parents / guardians to get involved in Club Junior activities. If you are interested in getting involved, please contact the Club Manager at 087 233 0749.

What activities are covered?

Adult supervision is provided only during the following:

- Your child's allocated coaching period; and
- Club junior activities and tournaments organised by the Junior Committee.

While there may be adults present in the Club at other times the Club does not regard their presence as the provision of adequate adult supervision and the Club is not responsible for the safety and protection of your child outside the activities listed above. It is the responsibility of each parent/guardian to ensure that their child is adequately supervised at all other times that they are on the Club premises, including when the child is receiving private coaching.

Summer camps at Rathgar Tennis Club are independently run by the Junior Coach and supervision at these camps is not the responsibility of the Club.

Appendix 10– Club and Court Behaviour

The following rules shall govern the use of the premises of Rathgar Tennis Club unless altered by the Executive Committee as it may see fit from time to time.

- Members and visitors to our Club are expected to behave in a sporting manner and respect the Club at all times.
- Never walk behind a court when play is in progress, wait until there is a break in play before crossing a court and acknowledge the players when passing through.
- Appropriate tennis footwear and recognised sports attire must be worn on court at all times.
- Return tennis balls to other courts promptly - but never while play is in progress.
- Do not try to retrieve tennis balls from other courts when play is in progress.
- Avoid excessive noise when playing or watching matches.
- Racquet abuse and foul language is not acceptable behaviour in court or in the Club at any time, either as a player, spectator or at a social occasion.
- Avoid distractions to your fellow players e.g. mobile phones should be put on silent when on court. Answering calls on court is not acceptable behaviour.
- Spectators must not interfere when matches are in progress – specifically no line calling or coaching by spectators or parents is permitted.
- During League Matches, have additional consideration for both fellow members and their visiting opponents – social tennis should not be played on adjoining court to a competitive match if at all possible. League matches take priority over all other games.

Appendix 11 – Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Children’s Sport

The Irish Sports Council and the Sports Council for Northern Ireland published a joint Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Children’s Sport in 2000. This publication recognises the commitment of both Councils to ensure that young people are safeguarded in their participation in sport in the island of Ireland. The Code has been adopted and implemented by governing bodies of sports, clubs, local sports partnerships and community/voluntary groups on an on-going basis since 2000 and has been adopted at Rathgar Tennis Club.

Appendix 12 – Children First: National Guidance for the Protection and Welfare of Children

Children First: National Guidance for the Protection and Welfare of Children \(2017\) is a national policy document which assists people in identifying and reporting child abuse. It describes the four main types of abuse and sets out the steps which should be taken to ensure that the child or young person is protected from harm. "It is intended to assist you, whether you are a member of the public, a professional, employee or volunteer in identifying and reporting child abuse and neglect, and to deal effectively with these concerns. It also sets out the statutory responsibilities for mandated persons and organisations under the Children First Act 2015 and provides information about how the statutory agencies respond to reports of concerns made about children."

Appendix 13 – Tennis Ireland: Complaints, Objections and Disciplinary Rules and Procedures

Tennis Ireland's Complaint, Objection & Disciplinary Rules and Procedures have been adopted by Rathgar Tennis Club.

Appendix 14 - Child Welfare and Protection Procedures

Rathgar Tennis Club accepts that all organisations, which include young people among its members, are vulnerable to the occurrence of child abuse. This Appendix sets out the procedures for dealing with any welfare or protection issue that may arise in the Club.

Child welfare and the protection of young people is the concern of all adults at all times, irrespective of their role within the Club.

If there are grounds for concern about the safety or welfare of a young person, the Club and any member having such concerns must take appropriate steps to address those concerns.

The Designated Person

In certain limited circumstances it may be necessary to report suspected or known child abuse allegations to the HSE or An Garda.

The Club has in place a Designated Person whose job it is to receive such reports from club members. They will then decide if a report should be made to the Health Service Executive (HSE) or indeed in certain circumstances to An Garda Síochána.

The Designated Person has received specific training for this role. In addition the person chosen to fulfil the role will be a senior and experienced member of the Club.

Role and Responsibilities

- To receive reports from club members (Senior or Junior) regarding suspected or known child abuse.
- To assess such reports and to seek advice from the HSE in regard to the particular circumstances.
- To make formal reports to the HSE and/or to the Garda Síochána regarding suspected or known child abuse.
- To inform the Chairperson of the Club that such a report has been made or advice sought (without disclosing any of the details of the incident).
- To inform the family of an alleged victim of his/her intention to make such a report. (unless doing so would endanger the child or undermine an investigation)
- Assisting the Chairperson/President and other Club Officers in relation to any internal procedures where an allegation concerns a Coach, Club Employee or Sports Leader.

Minimum Requirements

- Have attended the Safeguarding 1 –Basic Awareness Workshop in Child Welfare and Protection.
- Have attended the Safeguarding 3 – Designated Liaison Person Workshop.

Desirable qualities and skills.

- The Designated Person should have good communication and listening skills, be approachable and non-judgmental.
- He/she should have a good knowledge of child welfare and protection codes and guidelines (which will be acquired through appropriate training).
- The position will require the person to be trustworthy, discreet, impartial and sensitive as they will be required to handle and manage confidential material.

If in doubt the member should always contact the Designated Person to discuss any child protection matter of concern. The Designated Person who will then deal with the matter as they see fit.

It is important to realise that it is not the responsibility of anyone working within the tennis club, in a paid or voluntary capacity, to take responsibility or decide whether or not child abuse is taking place. That is the job of the statutory authorities.

However, there is a responsibility to protect children by assisting the appropriate agencies so that they can then make enquiries and take any necessary action to protect the young person.

Responding to a Child Disclosing Abuse.

In some circumstances a young person may disclose to a trusted adult instances of abuse or other concerns relating to themselves or others.

Any adult finding themselves in this situation should follow the guidelines set out below.

If a young person discloses information of suspected abuse you should:

- Deal with any allegation of abuse in a sensitive and competent way through listening to and facilitating the child to tell about the problem, rather than interviewing the child about details of what happened.
- Stay calm and don't show any extreme reaction to what the child is saying. Listen compassionately and take what the child is saying seriously.
- Understand that the child has decided to tell something very important and has taken a risk to do so. The experience of telling should be a positive one so that the child will not mind talking to those involved in the investigation.

- Be honest with the child and tell them that it is not possible to keep information a secret.
- Make no judgmental statements against the person whom the allegation is made.
- Do not question the child unless the nature of what she/he is saying is unclear. Leading questions should be avoided. Open, non-specific questions should be used such as “Can you explain to me what you mean by that”.
- Give the child some indication of what would happen next, such as informing the Designated Person, parents/guardians, social services or the Gardai. It should be kept in mind that the child may have been threatened and may feel vulnerable at this stage.
 - Reassure the child that they have done the right thing in telling you.
 - Carefully record the details as soon as possible after receiving the report.
 - Pass on this information to the Club’s Designated Person.

Reporting Suspected or Disclosed Child Abuse.

The following steps will be taken by the Designated Person in reporting child abuse to the statutory authorities:

- Details such as dates, times, locations and contexts in which the incident occurred or suspicion was aroused, together with any other relevant information will be recorded by the Designated Person. These notes will be retained by the Designated Person and destroyed when no longer required.
- If the Designated Person has reasonable grounds for believing that the child has been abused or is at risk of abuse, she/he will make a report to the HSE which has a statutory responsibility to investigate and assess suspected or actual child abuse.
- In cases of emergency, where a child appears to be at immediate and serious risk and the Designated Person is unable to contact a duty social worker, the Gardai will be contacted. Under no circumstances will a child be left in a dangerous situation pending intervention by the statutory authorities.
- If the Designated Person is unsure whether reasonable grounds for concern exist she/he can informally consult with the local social services. She/he will be advised whether or not the matter requires a formal report.

A Designated Person reporting suspected or actual child abuse to the Statutory Authorities will first inform the family of the alleged victim of his/her intention to make such a report, unless doing so would endanger the child or undermine an investigation.

Protection for the Person Reporting possible Child Abuse.

It is important to reassure anyone who is in the position of receiving information or directly becoming aware of possible child abuse that in making a report they won't be subject to litigation. In this regard the Protection for Persons Reporting Child Abuse Act, 1998 provides immunity from civil liability to persons who report child abuse 'reasonably and in good faith' to the Health Services Executive or the Gardai (directly or via a Designated Person). The act also covers the offence of 'false reporting'.

The main provisions of the Act are:

- The provision of immunity from civil liability to any person who reports child abuse "reasonably and in good faith" to designated officers of the Health Service Executive or any member of An Garda Síochána.
- The provision of significant protections for employees who report child abuse. These protections cover all employees and all forms of discrimination up to and including dismissal.
- The creation of a new offence of false reporting of child abuse where a person makes a report of child abuse to the appropriate authorities "knowing that statement to be false". This is a new criminal offence designed to protect innocent persons from malicious reports.

Allegations against Coaches/Club Employees/Sports Leaders

The following are the agreed procedures to be followed in cases of alleged child abuse complaints concerning a Coach, Club Employee or Sports Leader. If such an allegation is made against a Coach/Club Employee/Sports Leader working within the Club, two separate procedures will be followed in tandem:

- The reporting to the statutory authorities by the Designated Person in respect of suspected or disclosed child abuse. (see above for details).
- The Club will also follow its own internal procedure in dealing with the Coach/Club Employee/Sports Leader from a club perspective.

The Internal Procedure will be as follows.

- As soon as the Designated Person is made aware of allegations which concern a Coach/Club Employee/Sports Leader within the Club he/she will make the Club Chairman/President aware of the situation. If the allegations concern the Chairperson/President then the Designated Person will convene a meeting of the other officers of the Club and brief them on the situation.

- The first thing to consider at this stage is the safety of the child making the allegation and the safety of any other children who may be at risk. The Club will immediately take any steps considered necessary to protect children in its care.
- The next step will be to appoint a senior member of the Club to deal with the matter. Under normal circumstances this person will be selected by the Designated Person together with the Chairperson. Where the allegations concern the Chairperson/President the person will be selected by the Designated Person and the other club officers.
- The senior club member will privately inform the Coach/Club Employee/Sports Leader that
 - an allegation has been made against him/her
 - the nature of the allegation.
- He/she will be afforded an opportunity to respond and informed that any response will be noted and passed on to the statutory authorities.
- The Coach/Club Employee/Sports Leader will be suspended from their position pending the outcome of the Club's investigation. Any investigation of the allegations by the statutory authorities will take precedence over any separate investigation by the Club into the allegations. The senior club member will clarify that this suspension is only a precautionary measure and will not prejudice any later disciplinary proceedings.
- The Club will retain the right to take disciplinary action against the Coach/Club Employee/Sports Leader on foot of the allegations.

Confidentiality

Given the sensitive nature of the issues covered by this appendix confidentiality will be a very important consideration. The Club will be guided in this regard by the following.

- Appropriate but not absolute confidentiality will be maintained in respect of all issues and people involved in cases of abuse, welfare or bad practice. It is important that the rights of both the alleged victim and the person about whom the complaint has been made are protected.
- A guarantee of confidentiality or undertakings regarding secrecy cannot be given, as the welfare of the child will supersede all other considerations.
- All information will be treated in a careful and sensitive manner and will be discussed only with those who need to know.

- Information will be conveyed to the parents/guardians of the child in a sensitive way.
- Giving information to others on a 'need to know' basis for the protection of a
- child is not a breach of confidentiality.
- All persons involved in a child protection process will be afforded appropriate respect, fairness, support and confidentiality at all stages of the procedure.
- Information will be stored in a secure place, with access to it limited to the Designated Person and appropriate personnel as decided by the Designated Person.
- The requirements of Data Protection laws will be adhered to.

Anonymous Complaints/Rumours

Anonymous complaints can be difficult to deal with but will not be ignored. Rumours will not be allowed to persist and will be dealt with by the Executive Committee as soon as it becomes aware of such rumours. All concerns relating to inappropriate behaviour will be brought to the attention of the Designated Person in order that they may be dealt with as soon as possible. It is the responsibility of every member who becomes aware of such concerns to report them to the Designated Person. The information will be checked out and handled in a confidential manner. In all cases the safety and welfare of the child/children will be paramount.

Appendix 15 - Bullying Policy

Rathgar Tennis Club is aware of the potential for bullying behaviour to take place within the Club. This Appendix sets out the Club's policy on bullying, the supports to be put in place to support the victims of bullying and the procedures to be followed if incidents occur.

What is Bullying?

Bullying can be defined as repeated aggression be it verbal, psychological or physical conducted by an individual or group against others.

It is behaviour that is intentionally aggravating and intimidating and occurs mainly in social environments such as schools, clubs and other organisations working with children.

It includes behaviours such as teasing, taunting, threatening, hitting and extortion behaviour by one or more children against a victim.

How would you know if a child is being bullied?

All bullies operate using furtiveness, threats and fear. Bullying can therefore only survive in an environment where the victim does not feel empowered to tell someone who can help or in which it is not safe to do so. The Club will actively encourage all young members to reject bullying and encourage the reporting of incidents to the Children's Officers.

The following indicators are warning signs that a young person might be getting bullied.

- Reluctance to come to a venue or take part in activities.
- Physical signs (unexplained bruises, scratches, or damage to belongings).
- Stress-caused illness – headaches, and stomach aches which seem unexplained.
- Fearful behaviour (fear of walking to a meeting, going different routes, asking to be driven).
- Frequent loss of, or shortage of, money with vague explanations.
- Having few friends.
- Changes in behaviour (withdrawn, stammering, moody, irritable, upset, distressed).
- Not eating.
- Attempting suicide or hinting at suicide.
- Anxiety (shown by nail-biting, fearfulness, tics).

There are of course other possible reasons for many of the above.

Who Should Deal with bullying?

While the more extreme forms of bullying would be regarded as physical or emotional abuse and are reported to the Health Services Executive or An Garda Síochana, dealing with bullying behaviour amongst young people in the Club will, in the first instance, be the responsibility of the Club's Children's Officers.

How Can it be Prevented?

- Ensure that all members follow the code of conduct, which promotes the rights and dignity of each member.
- Deal with any incidents as they arise.
- Use a whole group policy or 'no-blame approach', i.e., not 'bullying the bully' but working with bullies and the group of children, helping them to understand the hurt they are causing, and so make the problem a 'shared concern' of the group (see below).
- Reinforce that there is 'a permission to tell' culture rather than a 'might is right' one.
- Encourage children to negotiate, co-operate and help others, particularly new or different children.
- Offer the victim immediate support and put the 'no blame approach' into operation.
- Never tell a child to ignore bullying.
- Never encourage a child to take the law into their own hands and beat the bully at their own game.
- Tell the victim there is nothing wrong with them and it is not their fault.

What is the 'No Blame' Approach?

- Step 1 – Interview with the victim

If there has been an incident of bullying, one of the Club's Children's Officers will talk to the victim. At this stage he/she will try to find out who was involved and what the victim is now feeling by asking questions such as.

- Was it verbal or physical intimidation?
- How hurt is the victim
- Was it within his/her own peer group?

Assure the victim that his/her name will not come out in the investigation and actively listen.

- Step 2 – Meet with all involved

The Children's Officers will arrange to meet with all those involved. This should include bystanders, those who may have colluded, those who joined in and those who initiated the bullying. However, try to limit it to a maximum of six to eight in the group – keep the number controllable.

The Children's Officers should

- Make a point of calling a 'special' meeting.
- Ensure the severity of the topic is understood by all.
- Speak only of the hurt caused in general terms with no reference to the victim.
- Play on the conscience of all –ask questions like: How would you feel? Would you like it done to you?

- Step 3 – Explain the problem

The distress being suffered as a result of the bullying incident will explained. At this stage the details of the incident or the allocation of the blame will not be discussed. Explain the feelings of loneliness, feeling left out, rejected, laughed at.

Try asking questions:

- Would they like it if it happened to them?
- Someone here in this group was bullied by someone within the group, what can be done to see it does not happen again?

The Children's Officers will use the meeting to identify the basis for the bullying incident and without isolating anyone try to identify a solution.

- Step 4 – Share the responsibility

The Children's Officers will explain what steps/controls may have to be introduced to prevent further incidents and how everyone will lose out as a result.

- Step 5 – Ask the group for their ideas

At this stage the group will be encouraged to suggest ways that would make the victim feel happier. All positive responses will be listened to and noted.

- Step 6 – Leave it to them

Now that the problem has been identified, solutions suggested, the problem will now be handed over to the group to solve. A further meeting will be in a week's time. The responsibility will now be handed over to the group and give a time frame within which something must be done.

- Step 7 – Meet them again

At the second meeting each member of the group will discuss how things are going, who is doing what and have there been other incidents. This will allow for continual monitoring and also keeps everyone involved in the process.

Again the idea of the 'team' looking after each other will be reinforced at regular intervals to ensure it is known that bullying or intimidating behaviour will not be tolerated.

Appendix 16 - Social Media Policy

Introduction

Social media provides unique opportunities for tennis clubs to engage, connect, and develop unique relationships with people in a creative and dynamic medium where users are active participants. Information about an event or campaign messages can be dissipated virally amongst supporters within online communities. However, we must also be aware that these sites can become a negative forum for complaining, gossiping, or bullying. Care must be taken not to breach the Club's Child Protection Policy or the Data Protection Act.

Principles

If you are representing the Club in an official capacity, it is important that your posts convey the same positive spirit that the Club would instill in all of its communications. Be respectful of all individuals, races, religions, and cultures. How you conduct yourself online not only reflects on you – it also reflects directly on the Club.

When disagreeing with the opinions of others online, keep it appropriate and polite. If you find yourself in a situation that might become antagonistic, do not get defensive or disengage from the conversation abruptly. It is also important not to respond in the heat of the moment in a way you may regret later. Feel free to seek advice or disengage from the dialogue in a polite manner that reflects well on the Club.

Potential Problems

With all emerging technologies there is also the potential for misuse. Risks associated with user interactive services include: cyber bullying; grooming and potential abuse by online predators; identity theft; and exposure to inappropriate content such as self-harm, racism, sexting (which is the creation or uploading of inappropriate material), and adult pornography.

The capabilities of social networking services may increase the potential for sexual exploitation of children and young people. There have been a number of well reported cases where adults have used social networking and user interactive services as a means of grooming children and young people for sexual abuse.

Online grooming techniques include:

- Gathering personal details, such as age, name, address, mobile number, name of school, and photographs.
- Promising meetings with sports idols or celebrities or offers of merchandise.
- Offering cheap tickets to sporting or music events.
- Offering material gifts including electronic games, music, or software.

- Paying young people to appear naked and perform sexual acts.
- Bullying and intimidating behaviour, such as threatening to expose the child or young person by contacting their parents/guardians to inform them of their child's communications, or postings on a social networking site, and/or saying they know where the child lives, plays sport, or goes to school.
- Asking sexually themed questions, such as 'Do you have a boyfriend?' or 'Are you a virgin?'
- Asking to meet children and young people offline.
- Sending sexually themed images to a child depicting adult content or the abuse of other children.
- Masquerading as a minor or assuming a false identity on a social networking site to deceive a child.
- Using school or hobby sites (including sports) to gather information about a child's interests likes and dislikes.

Most social networking sites set a child's webpage/profile to private by default to reduce the risk of personal information being shared in a public area of the site.

Rules to Remember

If someone has their own personal profile on a social media website, they should make sure that others cannot access any contents, media, or information from that profile which:

- They are not happy for others to have access to.
- Which would undermine their position as a coach/volunteer representing their club.

As a basic rule, if you are not happy with others seeing particular comments, media, or information, then simply do not post these onto a public forum site.

When using social media sites, the following should be considered:

- Change your privacy setting on the profile so that only people you have accepted as friends can see your comments. Individuals should lock down their page to non-friends.
- Review who is on your 'friends list' on your personal profile. In most situations you should not accept 'friends requests' if you do not actually know the person(s) concerned.
- Ensure personal blogs have clear disclaimers that the views expressed are personal and not representative of the Club.

Child Protection Policy

- Ensure that information published on social media sites complies with the Club's Child Protection Policy.
- Beware of how your actions could be captured via images, posts, or comments online as these will reflect on the Club.
- Respond to online bullying - what is said online must be treated as if said in real time.
- Coaches must not have any under 18's whom they coach as their friends and must not comment on individual players whom they are coaching through their personal page.

Appendix 17 - Mental Wellbeing Policy

Rathgar Tennis Club recognises that mental health is as important as physical health and accepts that, on average, one in four people will experience a mental health difficulty in the course of a year and that such problems can cause real and lasting damage, both to the individual and to the community. The Club also recognises that the majority of people who experience mental health difficulties can get over them or learn to live with them especially if they are supported early on.

This Policy applies to members, volunteers and coaches and aims to ensure that everyone feels supported in the Club environment.

Policy statement

It is the policy of Rathgar Tennis Club to:

- Promote mental health and wellbeing through its management policies, support services, information networks and regular health promotion campaigns (including alcohol awareness, diet, exercise, self-management, suicide awareness), and by liaising appropriately with external agencies;
- Prevent, so far as is practicable, those circumstances detrimental to mental health and wellbeing;
- Provide an environment in which members who have mental health difficulties receive suitable support and adjustments to allow them to achieve their fullest potential.

Responsibility of Coaches / Volunteers / Committee

Coaches/Volunteers/Committee Members are expected to:

- Maintain a non-stigmatising, supportive community.
- Treat each member with a mental health difficulty as an individual, not a problem or a condition.
- Take advantage of training and information sources.
- Uphold confidentiality (wherever safety is not at risk).
- Recognise the limits to what they can do.
- Ensure relevant partnerships are in place with community partners responsible for mental wellbeing so that the Club is in a position to signpost people to community support services.

- Promote an ethos of talking about mental health issues

Rathgar Tennis Club recognises that where individuals help a member experiencing mental health difficulties, each person has boundaries or limits to his/her knowledge, responsibilities and competence, and that these boundaries must be respected. The Club will provide for its coaches/volunteers/committee suitable advice and training on:

- Identifying mental health difficulties and making initial responses to individuals;
- Recognising the need to refer an individual to support services;
- Accessing the Clubs support services;

Responsibility of Members

All club members are required to:

- Encourage the establishment and maintenance of a non-stigmatising, supportive community.
- Recognise the limits to what they can do.
- Refer to support and advice services within the Club when assistance is required.
- Inform the Club of difficulties that may be affecting their mental wellbeing, in order that the Club can deal fairly with them and support them where appropriate.
- Buy into the ethos of talking about mental health issues.

Appendix 18 - Photography and Video Footage of Children

There have been concerns about the risks posed directly and indirectly to children and young people through the use of photographs and video footage on sports websites and other publications. Photographs can be used as a means of identifying children when they are accompanied with personal information – this is X who lives at Y, is a member of the Z Tennis club and who likes a certain music group. This information can make a child vulnerable to an individual who may wish to start to “groom” that child for abuse. Secondly the content of the photo can be used or adapted for inappropriate use. There is evidence of this adapted material finding its way onto child pornography sites.

Sporting organisations and clubs need to develop a policy in relation to the use of images of athletes on their websites and in other publications. The sport will need to make decisions about the type of images they consider suitable and that appropriately represent the sport, without putting children at increased risk. They will want to ensure that parents support their policy. When assessing the potential risks in the use of images of athletes, the most important factor is the potential of inappropriate use of images of children.

If sporting organisations are aware of the potential risks and take appropriate steps, the potential for misuse of images can be reduced.

Tennis Ireland Advice

- Consider using models or illustrations if you are promoting an activity
- Avoid the use of the first name and surname of individuals in a photograph. This reduces the risk of inappropriate, unsolicited attention from people within and outside the sport.

Easy rules to remember

- If the child is named, avoid using their photograph
- If a photograph is used, avoid naming the child
- Ask for the child’s permission to use their image. This ensures that they are aware of the way the image is to be used to represent the sport. A Child’s Permission Form is one way of achieving this
- Ask for parental permission to use an image of a young person. This ensures that parents are aware of the way the image of their child is representing the sport. A Parental Permission Form is one way of achieving this
- Only use images of children in suitable dress to reduce the risk of inappropriate use. With regard to the actual content it is difficult to specify exactly what is appropriate given the wide diversity of sports. However there are clearly some sports activities - swimming, gymnastics and athletics for example when the risk of potential misuse is much greater than for other sports. With these sports the content of the photograph should focus on the activity not on a particular child and should avoid full face and body shots. So for example shots of children in a pool would be appropriate or if poolside, waist or shoulder up.

- Create a recognised procedure for reporting the use of inappropriate images to reduce the risks to children. Follow your child protection procedures, ensuring both your sports child protection officer and the Social Services and/or Police are informed.

First Steps and Things to Think About

- Establish the type of images that appropriately represent the sport for the Web and other media
- Think about the level of consideration you give to the use of images of children in other publications, for example, the processes involved in choosing appropriate images for the newsletter or magazine. Apply an increased level of consideration to the images of children and young people used in the web site.

Guidelines for Use of Photographic Filming Equipment at Sporting Events

- Provide a clear brief about what is considered appropriate in terms of content and behaviour, including the displaying of notices at each event.
- Issue the photographer with identification which must be worn at all times.
- Inform children and parents that a photographer will be in attendance at an event and ensure they consent to both the taking and publication of films or photographs.
- Do not allow unsupervised access to children or one to one photo sessions at events.
- Do not approve/allow photo sessions outside the events or at a child's home.
- If parents or other spectators are intending to photograph or video at an event they should also be made aware of your expectations.
- Spectators should be asked to register at an event if they wish to use photographic equipment.
- Children and parents should be informed that if they have concerns they can report these to the organiser.

Child Protection Policy

- Concerns regarding inappropriate or intrusive photography should be reported to the event organiser or official and recorded in the same manner as any other child protection concern.

Appendix 19 – Rathgar Tennis Club Child Safeguarding Statement - September 2020

Tennis Ireland provides sporting activities and opportunities for children and young people through participation in parks, clubs, regional, provincial events and with our representative teams. Tennis Ireland is committed to safeguarding children and young people. All our affiliated stakeholders work under the guidance and policies of our Safeguarding Code. All our volunteers and staff working with children throughout the organisation, seek to create a safe environment for children and young people to participate in Tennis.

Rathgar Tennis Club's Safeguarding Risk Assessment indicates the areas of potential risk of harm, the likelihood of the risk occurring, and gives the required policy, guidance or process documents required to alleviate these risks. The list of risks identified are contained in the following categories: Club and Coaching Practices; Complaints & Disciplinary; Reporting Procedures; Use of Facilities; Recruitment; Communications; and General Risk of Harm.

Rathgar Tennis Club's Child Safeguarding Statement has been developed in line with requirements under the Children First Act 2015, (the Children First: National Guidance and Tusla's Child Safeguarding: A Guide for Policy, Procedure and Practice) and Gateway Northern Ireland. In addition to our Risk Assessment document described above, there are further procedures that support our intention to safeguard children while they are availing of our services.

Rathgar Tennis Club has the following procedures in place as part of the Tennis Ireland Safeguarding Code.

- Procedures for the management of allegations of abuse or misconduct by staff or volunteers against a child availing of our activities.
- Procedures for the safe recruitment of staff and volunteers to work with children in our activities.
- Procedures for access to child safeguarding training and information, including the identification of the occurrence of harm.

(Please read this information carefully)

Statement of non-discrimination

Rathgar Tennis Club is committed to equal opportunity for all applicants including those with criminal convictions. Information about criminal convictions is requested to assist the selection process and will be taken into account only when the conviction is considered relevant to the post. Any disclosure will be seen in the context of the job criteria, the nature of the offence and the responsibility for the care of existing clients\customers and employees.

For the purposes of your application for the post of _____ it is our policy to ask for a check to be carried out by the statutory organisation responsible for this task in the jurisdiction in which you are working/volunteering.

Advice to Applicants

Please complete this form as accurately as possible and return it marked “Confidential” in the envelope provided. An arrangement will be made with you to discuss any clarification that may be required.

If you leave anything out it may affect your application. The disclosure of a criminal record or other information will not debar you from registration / appointment unless Tennis Ireland considers that the conviction renders you unsuitable. In making this decision Tennis Ireland will consider the nature of the offence, how long ago it was committed and what age you were at the time and other factors which may be relevant.

Have you ever been convicted of a criminal offence or been the subject of a caution; a Bound Over Order (NI only); been given the benefit of the Probations Act (ROI); or are you at present the subject of criminal investigations?
